SAMUEL M. DURAN is a partner at the Cincinnati and Columbus offices of Taft, Stettinius & Hollister LLP, where he heads the firm's Workers' Compensation Practice Group. He represents management in the areas of workers' compensation, intentional torts and retaliatory discharge, and is recognized by the Ohio State Bar Association as a certified specialist in Ohio Workers' Compensation Law. He earned his A.B. degree from the University of Michigan, his M.A. degree from the University of Denver and his J.D. degree from The Ohio State University. Mr. Duran is a member of the Ohio State, Columbus and Cincinnati (member Ethics Committee, served as chairman of the Workers' Compensation Committee) bar associations. Mr. Duran has recently been listed in Best Lawyers in America.

CYNTHIA C. FELSON is a partner in the Cincinnati law firm of Taft, Stettinius & Hollister LLP, where she practices in the area of workers' compensation law. She earned her B.A. degree from the University of Cincinnati and her J.D. degree from Salmon P. Chase College of Law. Ms. Felson frequently lectures to various professional groups on workers' compensation issues. She is chair of the Workers' Compensation Committee of the Cincinnati Bar Association.

JOANNE W. GLASS is a member of Frost Brown Todd LLC. She represents employers in all phases of workers' compensation matters, including administrative hearings and judicial matters before various levels of Ohio state courts. Ms. Glass counsels employers regarding the administration and defense of workers' compensation claims, claims management and cost containment, accident investigation and reporting, violation of specific safety requirement (VSSR) claims, premium and group ratings, attaining and maintaining self-insured status, subrogation, workers' compensation retaliation and other related matters. She also defends employers in post-administrative litigation in common pleas courts throughout Ohio. Ms. Glass also is admitted in Kentucky. She has counseled Kentucky employers in the administration and defense of its workers' compensation claims and has represented employers at various administrative proceedings in Kentucky. Ms. Glass is a member of the Cincinnati Bar Association (Labor & Employment Section and vice chairman, Workers' Compensation Committee), Ohio State Bar Association (Labor & Employment Section and Workers' Compensation Committee), Kentucky Bar Association (Workers' Compensation & Labor sections) and Northern Kentucky Bar Association (Workers' Compensation Committee). She has previously lectured on areas of her practice. Ms. Glass earned her B.A. degree from Xavier University and her J.D. degree from Chase College of Law.

LISA L. PATTERSON is the owner and founding member of LL Patterson LLC. Ms. Patterson has 15 years of experience practicing in all aspects of workers' compensation law at both the administrative and court levels. Her representative clients include state fund and self-insured employers in the logistics, automobile, manufacturing, government entities and retail industries, to name only a few. LL Patterson LLC, as a firm is founded on the principle of providing clients with exceptional and results oriented service. The firm's singular mission is to aggressively and exclusively protect Ohio employers' rights. Ms. Patterson is an annual speaker with the Ohio State Bar Association, National Business Institute and Sterling Education Services, and routinely performs on-site supervisor training in accident prevention and accident investigation. She regularly represents employers who are involved in Violations of Specific Safety Requirements and represents them through the initial answer, BWC investigation, hearing and court appeal process. As the founding member of Women of Workers' Compensation Defense, Ms. Patterson provides training, legislative and case law updates monthly to women lawyers practicing in the area of workers' compensation defense in the State of Ohio. She is committed to mentoring women lawyers practicing in this field. Ms. Patterson graduated from the University of Toronto, St. Michael's College in Toronto, Ontario, Canada, with a B.A. degree in English, and Capital University Law School in Columbus, Ohio, where she received her J.D. degree. She is trained as a collaborative lawyer and participant in the move to bring collaborative law to the employment law arena. She is admitted to practice in State of Ohio and the Southern District of Ohio. Ms. Patterson is a member of the Ohio State Bar Association, the Warren County Bar Association and the Dayton Bar Association.

EDNA SCHEUER is managing partner of Scheuer Mackin & Breslin LLC. Ms. Scheuer has more than 25 years of experience, including recognition as an expert in the field of workers' compensation law and as a strategist with an exceptional understanding of medical issues, including Medicare set-asides. She has represented management in the areas of workers' compensation, intentional torts, safety violations and employment discrimination cases. Ms. Scheuer's practice includes representation before the Industrial Commission, the Bureau of Workers' Compensation, Courts of Common Pleas, Courts of Appeal and the Ohio Supreme Court. She has been retained as an expert witness on Ohio Workers' Compensation Law and is a frequent speaker on workers' compensation, intentional torts and related issues. One of Ms. Scheuer's special interests is occupational disease litigation, including cases involving asbestos, silica, benzene, radiation and chemical exposures. She is a member of the Ohio Self-Insured Association, the Southwest Ohio Self-Insured Association and the Ohio State Bar Association. Ms. Scheuer earned her bachelor's degree from Wright State University and her J.D. degree, summa cum laude, from the University of Dayton School of Law.
