

The Buckeye Institute for Public Policy Solutions Presents

Preserving Your Business and Reputation in the Face of Unwarranted Prosecution

A Provocative Discussion

The justice system relies on extracting plea deals, sometimes even from the innocent and from supposedly deep-pocketed businesses. What happens when a public-minded business owner—in this case the CEO of a prominent Cincinnati and Columbus area homebuilder—risks his reputation and financial peril to fight for citizen's rights, fairness in the justice system and the jobs of his associates? Three distinguished panelists, including two former federal prosecutors and an internationally recognized expert on criminal law from The Ohio State University will be on hand to discuss concerns about the power of prosecutors—and why we all should care.
